

Matthaes (Hrsg.), René Frank

CODA. Progressive Desserts: English Edition

The culinary signature of the German 2-star chef and The World's Best Pastry Chef, René Frank

The Culinary Identity of Two-Star Chef René Frank
Next-generation fine dining: A captivating glimpse inside two-star restaurant CODA
Signature recipes and high-end tasting menus from CODA
Classic technique meets bold innovation: René Frank's book honors the deconstruction of classic gastronomy
A visual masterpiece: Richly produced and featuring breathtaking imagery by star photographer Joerg Lehmann
René Frank's Boundary-Pushing Cuisine
In CODA – Progressive Desserts, René Frank presents the definitive guide to the philosophy and dishes of CODA. He demonstrates how the world's only two-Michelin-starred restaurant rooted in pastry principles has spent years shaping a brand-new vision of elite cuisine. Blending personal reflections on his career with an in-depth look at ingredient philosophy and creative technique, the book captures his fundamental mission to reimagine pastry from the ground up. Meticulous recipes illustrate how these concepts take shape on the plate—characterized by balance, exactitude, and absolute product focus, free from traditional course structures. By breaking down the barrier between sweet and savory, René Frank makes room for inventive creations shaped solely by ingredient purity, technique, and taste. CODA – Progressive Desserts is much more than a recipe collection. It provides an exclusive, thorough exploration of the ethos and creative methodology driving one of contemporary cuisine's most singular voices. A five-time "Pastry Chef of the Year" and named "World's Best Pastry Chef," René Frank continually redefines the limits of modern haute cuisine and fundamentally revolutionizes the art of pastry.

Matthaes (Hrsg.), René Frank

CODA. Progressive Desserts: English Edition

The culinary signature of the German 2-star chef and The World's Best Pastry Chef, René Frank

ISBN 978-3-98541-101-6

288 Seiten, 247 x 297 mm

With color photos

€ 78,00 (D) / € 80,20 (A)

Erscheint am 27.11.2026